

Obituar.

Mrs. Jennie C. Quackibush departed this life Dec. 9th, 1903, after a lingering illness of three months. She had been a member of the church since 1896, and died very peacefully. A few minutes before her death she expressed to her husband her great trust in God and willingness to abide His will; then she said she felt tired and closed her eyes to sleep. In a few minutes she had sweetly slept the sleep of death.

James A. Linkroum died of pneumonia Dec. 28, 1903, after a short illness. Friends who had seen him but a week before his death had congratulated him on his rugged health and were astonished to find that he had so quickly passed away. He joined the M. E. Church in 1894.

Catherine L. Quackibush was born Oct. 4, 1832. She died in 1904. She had been a member of the M. E. Church since 1894 and in the year 1904 she was a faithful and active member of the church service. She took a part in the church service. For a long time she was feeble and unable to walk.

this glorious hope. Rev. W. A. Knox was at Conference, therefore Rev. Mr. Jackson was asked to officiate at the funeral service.

Emily Thomas, mother of Mrs. Walter Dewsnap, departed this life March 6th, 1904, aged fifty years. She was a very earnest Christian and a member of the Baptist Church of Ridgewood. She was a frequent attendant of the Archer Memorial M. E. Church and was greatly loved by all its members. Rev. W. A. Knox was asked to officiate at the funeral services. She died of a long sickness.
