

ALLENDALE'S OWN MOVING PICTURES

IN BOROUGH HALL

Saturday, May 10th

AFTERNOON AND EVENING AT 3.15 AND 8.15

Children under twelve, 10 cents. Adults, 15 cents

(The War Tax Borne by the Company)

PROGRAM

THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS

A scenic travel picture of great beauty: The wonderful "American Rockies" as seen from a locomotive, and a mechanical picture showing old modes of travel to the electric locomotive of to-day.

One Reel.

SOPHIE TAKES A DEAD ONE

Funny Western comedy in two reels. Featuring Margaret Joslyn and Victor Poteo. Fun in a Frontier Boarding House. "Slippery Slim" in a riot of laughs.

THE LITTLE STRATEGIST

A fine Vitagraph play in four reels with Paula Blackton. A touching comedy drama of the South in Civil War days with two pretty romances running through the play.

WEBER AND FIELDS

In a screaming farce entitled "The Children Elope". Mike and Meyer (Weber and Fields) partners in a Delicatessen business have trouble "to burn" ending in their children eloping.

One Reel.