Dear Mrs. Wardell,

I've read - re-read - & re-read! your manuscript - and have made notations of - additions, corrections - and extra information for some of the accounts and also made notes of correction of statements in the 1964 History of Allendale.

So, anytime you would like to come for them - and talk over events - let me know. Wednesday is "Cleaning Day" on our 3rd floor - and that day is the least convenient.

I hope you have been able to have prints made of the pictures I loaned you. I know you will take good care of them until the return.

I've been living - and re-living - my whole life - thinking of the past - and the little project of reading all the accounts - and in some cases - somewhat "not just so", has filled many hours of an occupied mind and old memories.

Awaiting to hear from you.
