Miss Ethel V. Borger

ALLENDALE — A funeral service for Miss Ethel V. Borger of Carlton Court, a retired teacher and resident of the borough for 77 years, was conducted Friday at the Van Emburgh-Sneider Funeral Home, Ramsey. Miss Borger, 82, died Wednesday at her home.

Born in New York City, she lived 65 years at 70 W. Allendale Ave. She was a teacher in the Rutherford and East Rutherford school systems before she retired in 1955. She was graduated from Ridgewood High School in 1908 and Trenton Normal School in 1912.

Miss Borger was a member of the Archer United Methodist Church, the XYZ Club of Allendale, the Allendale Historical Society and the N.J. Education Assn.

She is survived by two nieces, Mrs. Edith G. Webb and Mrs. Mildred L. Keet, both of the borough, and three grandnieces.

Interment was in Valleau Cemetery, Ridgewood.
