 OF
 THE ANDREWS SISTERS

plus the
JOE ALBANY TRIO

SUNDAY
February 24th

"... After all those years singing harmony in the Andrews Sisters razzle-dazzle arrangements, it now turns out that Maxene's real forte is as a ballad singer... an act that sets Miss Andrews apart from any other contemporary singers..."

John Wilson, New York Times, 11-15-79

"... Show stopping act... talent and nostalgia make Maxene the most... free of spirit and singing better than ever... truly gripping..."

Rex Reed, New York Daily News, 11-16-79

"Maxene Andrews defines the phrase 'Song Stylist.' She displayed a musical panache that was wonderful to hear and see... After a standing ovation she returned to do a brief medley of the 'oldies' including the classic 'Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy'... moving and triumphant..."

Ed Roginski, The Hollywood Reporter, Los Angeles, 9-27-79

"... I've NEVER ever heard such good word of mouth about anybody in this business... catch this incredible talent..."

Liz Smith, New York Daily News, 11-18-79

"... The two-weeker of Maxene Andrews should prove profitable for Reno Sweeney... She's pulling in those who were admirers of the Andrews Sisters, as well as youngsters... Singers knew their business in that era..."

Jose, VARIETY, 11-21-79
