

Water Safety Courses Planned

Water Safety Instructor training and Adapted Aquatic Instructor training are scheduled for April through June by the Northwest Bergen Chapter, American Red Cross.

The WSI course will run Tuesday and Thursday evenings, April 28 through June 11, utilizing the Ridgewood YM-YWCA pool.

Adapted Aquatics Instructor Course (swimming for the handicapped) will run Monday and Wednesday evenings, April 13 through June 10, also at the Ridgewood Y pool. Adapted Aquatics is recommended for physical therapists, special education teachers and recreation specialists, as well as swimming instructors.

Registration for WSI and Adapted Aquatics instructor training is being accepted by Red Cross, Northwest Bergen Chapter at 74 Godwin Ave., Ridgewood. For information or registration call the Red Cross Education Office at 652-3210.

Town Journal Investigative Reporter Mary Service caught her Editor Bobbye Laubenheimer at the appropriate spot to show off the award she received for an article "Garbage, Garbage Everywhere..." — at The Town Journal dumpster. photo by Ruth Skouron

Town Journal Reporter Receives Award For 3-Part Series on Future of Garbage

ALLENDALE — Mary Service, investigative reporter, has been awarded second place in the "Enterprise" category for weekly newspapers for a three-part series she wrote for The Town Journal on "Garbage, Garbage Everywhere..." The award was presented at the New Jersey Press Association's Annual Best Newspaper Contest of the Annual Newspaper Institute, held at the Sheraton Gardens, Freehold, last month. It was the sixth award The Town Journal has won in the 3 years of its current ownership.

Mrs. Service, who spent four months working on the three-part investigative piece, also covers the Allendale Zoning Board of Adjustment and the Allendale and Northern Highlands boards of education for The Town Journal.

Her newspaper career began in high school when she was editor of her school newspaper. She graduated from Marymount-Manhattan College, New York City, with a B.A. Degree in Political Science and went on to do graduate work at William and Mary College and received her Masters Degree in Public Administration from the University of Missouri-Kansas City.

A native of New York City, she and her husband, Richard, managing editor of Medical Economics Magazine, moved to Allendale in October 1978. They have a son, Timothy,

2. Mrs. Service is a member of the Friends of the Lee Memorial Library in Allendale, the Allendale Junior Woman's Club and Guardian Angel Church.

Mrs. Service has done substitute teaching and worked for the local health systems agency and the neighborhood organizations on housing and business renewal problems in Kansas City.

NEW JERSEY PRESS ASSOCIATION

CERTIFICATE OF AWARD

ANNUAL BEST NEWSPAPER CONTEST

Second Place
Enterprise
Weekly Division
The Town Journal

"Garbage, Garbage Everywhere..."
Mary Service

Presented at the Annual Newspaper Institute

March 12-13, 1981

Sheraton Gardens Freehold, New Jersey
Donald L. Mulford PRESIDENT
Elmer W. Tucker GENERAL MANAGER, NJPA